HOLIDAY CROWD ATTENDS AQUE-DUCT RACES.

B. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Carbunele Captures the Election Day Handleap-Merry England, Akela, Wizard, Garnish and Ella Snyder Successful in Other Events.

A typical holiday crowd attended the races Aqueduct yesterday afternoon, nearly non persons passing through the gates and swarming over the enclosure to an unimfortable degree. As far as the players of favorities were concerned, a slaughter took place, as the choice in each race was defeated and served to increase the size of the lavers bank rolls. But, at that, it may be said that all of the winners, save one, received good was a magnificent day for the sport and the track was in splendid condition The fields were compact and the ring handled more money than on any previous day during the present meeting. An appropriate fixture was the Election Day landicap, for all ages, at a mile and a furlong, with seven starters, all of whom were loaded th the public's wealth except Gaviota and Florham Queen. In spite of previous discointments the talent again made Foxhall Keene's Stolen Moments the favorite at 8 to 5, but the Kingston filly ran worse than ever. Her crushing defeat, however, was partially due to the fact that she was carried wide at the stretch turn by Lux Casta, backed down to sevens, who thus gave Redfern a chance o not only steal the race with R. T. Wilson, it's, Carbuncle, lowered to 9 to 2, but also to gain so much ground that he won in a drive by a half a length, hanging up the new track record of 1.52.3-5. Higgins made a strong finish on Stamping Ground, 5 to 1, beating

Lux Casta by three parts of a length.

Gay Boy was selected to win the first race, a handicap at six furlongs, being a steady favorite at 6 to 5. There was a wild plunge on E. R. Thomas's Buttons, who was hamngiand and River Pirate in considerable avor at 9 to 2 and 5 to 1. respectively. y Burns, always alert at the post, got Merry England away quickly and, after killing off orthern Star, he withstood the determined challenge of Buttons and beat him in a flerce drive by three parts of a length in 1:12 4-5, the lastest time ever made over the Aqueduct rack Buttons was six lengths before Gay oy, who was outrun from the jump.

Burns was in evidence again in the second race, for three-year-olds, at a mile, when he made all of the running with Akela, backed down to fives, and won rather easily by a length from the favorite, Gravina, who, under uller's drive, secured place money from choices to do anything in the third event, a handicap for two-year-olds, at six and a half urlongs, for when Starter Cassidy let the gate up Wizard, 20 to 1, beat the others by site up Wizard, 20 to 1, beat the others by several engths and was never in danger of being caught. Gannon rode him out, however, in order to beat the favorite and top weight, Dolly Spanker, by a length and a half in 120 3-5. The latter ran a great race, coming from behind in the long stretch and beating Monet, 8 to 1, by a length. The latter was a head before Wotan, second choice, who again gave evidence of overwork.

Somebody cleaned up a bunch when Garnish, a good looking colt by Rapallo—Garniture, took the flith race, for maiden two-year-oids, at seven furlongs, with 30 to 1 against him, having been quickly backed down from 60 to 1. He rushed into first place at the head of the stretch, beating Dutiful, 15 to 1, by a length in 128 1-5. The latter was a neck in front of Prince Salm Salm, 6 to 1, who beat Sonoma Belle, the favorite, by a head.

As a last resort the talent plunged on The Guardsman in the sixth event, at a mile, making him a 5 to 2 favorite. But Ella Snyder, 7 to 2, took his measure by two lengths, The Guardsman standing a hot drive from Higgins to beat McWilliams, 8 to 1, a neck. The time was 1:40 1-5. Widow's Mite was backed down from 8 to 1 to 7 to 2, but got a weak ride, faishing two necks out of the money.

W. S. Vosburgh Files His Complaint Against
L. V. Bell.

W. S. Vosburgh, official handicapper, filed a formal letter of complaint against L. V. Bell with the stewards of the Jockey Club yesterday, setting forth the fact that Mr. Bell had verbally assailed him in the clubhouse at Aqueduct on Monday, taking exception to the allotment of the official weights. Mr. Bell incidentally apologized to J. H. Bradford, one of the Jockey Club stewards, for having created a disturbance in the clubhouse in the latter's presence, and explained that perhaps he had lost his temper. But when Mr. Bell and Mr. Vosburgh met later on they did not speak. The Jockey Club stewards will look into the matter thoroughly.

Somebody tried to circulate a story vesterday that the annual neeting of the Metropolitan Turf Association held on Monday night was so stormy that the police had to be called in. Solace for New York A. C. in the Team in Junior Event at Travers Island

With Mohawks as Team Champions

The senior and junior national cross country championships were held yesterday at Travers Island under the auspices of the

New York A. C., and the races furnished lots of excitement to the club members and others who gathered to see the sport. The day was a trifle too warm for hill and dale work, the runners said, but the going was good, and this more than counterbalanced

the indulgence of the weather clerk.

In the senior event only two teams-the

New York A C and the Pastime A. C .- started and the home club won the team honors by the small margin of three points. Individual honors fell to John J. Joyce of the Pastime A. C., who showed that he is far and away ahead of any man at the sport in this country. At the finish he took the water jump as nimbly as a deer, and did not even raise a spatter. He sprinted to the tape. The Pastime A. C.

made some objection to Grant, saying that he was helped over a wall by McMeekan, a clubmate, but no notice was taken of the Mohawks, but J. Foy of the Star A. C. got

MOTOR CYCLES IN NOVEL CONTEST Six Out of Seventeen Make Perfect Score

in "Regularity Bun." novel contest run of 160 miles to Norwalk and back was held by the New York Motor proved to be both interesting and valuable a "regularity run." Seventeen members of the club started from the clubhouse at 8:45 o'clock in the morning, led by two pace-makers, and only these two knew when and where a halt was to be made. All the contestants knew that there were to be halts, and knew also that unless they arrived at the stopping place within five minutes after the pacemakers they would lose as many points as there were miles between that and the preceding stopping place. As there were 100 miles in the run there were 100 points to be had for a perfect score. It was a part of the conditions that any one who finished with a score of 70 points would get a medal. The checking places and the points to be lost by not being punctual at them, the points representing also the dis-tances, were as follows: New Rochelle, 19 Greenwich, 14: Norwalk, 20: Portchester, 17 Central Bridge, 20: clubhouse, 1904 Broad-way, 10 at 5:45 o'clock in the evening, and promptly at that time the pacemakers were on hand. By 5:50 o'clock eight contestants besides the two pacemakers had arrived and received their perfect check for that stop. Some of them, however, were minus checks for other stopping places, and only six of the ten had a perfect score of 100 points.

The scores of the first ten, who finished on time were as follows:

Yale Students Charged With Selling Foot-

The charge was made that members of the university abused their privilege of obtaining these seats by attempting to purchase them for speculators. The offenders were members of the graduate schools and freshmen. The editor of the News says that there will be absolutely no excuse for any one whose Harvard or Princeton tickets are found in the hands of speculators, and if any penalty more severe than that of blacklisting all men who abuse their privilege to obtain football tickets can be imposed it will be upheld by the undergraduates and considered entirely just.
